Asunto: Zero draft - para 5

Wording proposal of Mexico to the paragraph 5 of the zero draft.

5. There has to be a broader and more people-centered preventive approach to disaster risk. Enhanced work to address exposure and vulnerability and ensure accountability for risk creation is required at all level. More dedicated action needs to be focused on tackling underlying risk drivers and compounding factors, such as demographic change, the consequences of poverty and inequality, weak governance, inadequate and non-risk informed policies, limited capacity especially at the local level, poorly managed urban and rural development, declining ecosystems, climate change and variability, (MEX: EPIDEMIOLOGIC RISKS CONTROL) and conflict situations...
