Notes

Your Exchange Order will be an e-ticket. Print out a copy that shows the details of the e-ticket (name, reservation number, airline ticket number) and take it with you.
The Exchange Order must be redeemed for a JR EAST PASS within three months of Exchange Order issuance.

After arriving in Japan, you can use the pass on any five days within a 14-day period starting with the date of purchase or exchange in Japan. You do not have to determine your five travel dates at the time of purchase or exchange.
For example, if you purchase your pass or get it by exchange on August 1, you can show the pass at a station on any five days between August 1 and August 14 and it will be stamped as valid for use on that day.

1. Arriving in Narita Airport in Tokyo, please take your Exchange Order and your passport to JR East Travel Service Center at Terminal 1 or Terminal 2, where you will receive the JR EAST PASS after confirmation of eligibility.

2. Arriving in Haneda Airport in Tokyo, please take your Exchange Order and your passport to JR East Travel Service at Tokyo Monorail, where you will receive the JR EAST PASS after confirmation of eligibility.
