Session A:

Date, time: Monday, 17 November 2014. 13h15-14h45

Venue: Geneva, Palais des Nations, building E, room XIX

1. Background

One of the great strengths of the Hyogo Framework for Action has been its whole-of-society approach. The increasing engagement of a variety of stakeholders in policy formulation has been a hallmark of the Global, Regional and, in many cases, National Platforms for Disaster Risk Reduction. So has the establishment of robust, often self-organizing, networks including parliamentarians, local governments, community practitioners, civil society, private sector and science and technology. Many groups have coalesced around the needs and abilities of women, youth, persons living with disabilities, indigenous people and organized communities groups. Specialized groups have also emerged around sectoral issues such as environment, health, education or around selected hazards (volcanic eruption, earthquake, flood etc.).

The UN General Assembly has emphasized stakeholders' engagement in the preparation of the Third UN World Conference on Disaster Risk Reduction and, recognizing the importance of their contributions has called for an inclusive process in formulating the post-2015 framework for disaster risk reduction. In particular, the UN General Assembly "invites voluntary commitments by all stakeholders and their networks to implement the Hyogo Framework for Action as well as support the development of the post-2015 framework for disaster risk reduction".

2. Session objectives

The aim of the two Chair's Dialogues with Major Groups is to solicit views from the nine Major Groups and other stakeholders on how the post-2015-framework for disaster risk reduction can be used by Major Group partners to support work in building resilience to disasters and how to effectively engage Major Groups in implementation of the framework. The Chair will guide the discussions at each session through a series of questions inviting stakeholders to speak on:

- Priorities of action indicated in the Co-Chairs zero draft of a Post-2015 Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction
- Role of stakeholders, international cooperation and global partnership.
